

HAWAIIAN MISSION ACADEMY K-8

Acceptable Use Policy

January 15, 2010

The schools of the Seventh-day Adventist education system are pleased to offer their students access to a computer network for electronic mail and the Internet. To gain access to E-mail and the Internet, both parent and student must sign and return this form to HMA K-8.

Since the network is provided for students to conduct research and communicate with others, access is given to students who agree to act in a considerate and responsible manner. Parental permission is required. Access is a privilege—not a right. Access entails responsibility.

Computer storage files will be treated like school lockers. School staff may review files and communications to maintain system integrity and ensure that users are using the system responsibly.

Any activity not in accordance with these general rules may result in a loss of access as well as other disciplinary, monetary or legal action.

As a user of HMA K-8's computer network, I agree to comply with the above stated rules—communicating over the network in a reliable fashion while honoring all relevant laws and restrictions.

As the parent or legal guardian of the student signing above,

Check the appropriate choice:

- 1. I grant
- 2. I do not grant permission to access networked computer services such as electronic mail and the Internet.

I understand that individuals and families may be held liable for any inappropriate behavior. I understand that some materials on the Internet may be objectionable, but I accept responsibility to work with HMA K-8 in the guidance of Internet use---setting and conveying standards for my child to follow when selecting, sharing, or exploring information and media.
